FROM DIRECTOR'S DESK

Dr. Lalit Jain

Many aspiring medical professionals are often influenced by familial expectations or inspired by esteemed societal role models. However, choosing a career in medicine should be a deeply personal decision—one that aligns with an individual's intrinsic passions and long-term ambitions. Parrakhya Education Foundation (PEF) is dedicated to guiding MBBS aspirants in selecting the ideal educational institution without unnecessary financial strain. In collaboration with leading universities, we play a pivotal role in student selection, curriculum development, quality assurance, and global accreditation. Beyond academics, we offer comprehensive career counseling, ensuring a seamless transition for students into professional medical practice after graduation.

MEET OUR TEAM

Our dedicated team is the backbone of our success. With years of experience and profound industry knowledge, our dedicated counselors deliver tailored guidance, ensuring every aspiring doctor receives the support and direction needed to navigate their academic journey with confidence.
